

Hydrophobicity and charge produce distinguishable conditional responses (statistical response space; θ is NOT a molecular-mechanism angle)

Response directions over (spectral_decay, Rg, τ_1): $\theta_{hq} = 121^\circ$ (95% CI [40°, 154°]); near-orthogonality is a property of the standardized response space only.